Re: Weisshaus vs Port Authority - IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am Yoel Weisshaus, petitioner in this action.

I request to proceed in IN FORMA PAUPERIS because I have no money or liquid funds to pay for fees. In good faith disclosure and explanation to my affidavit I provide the following information.

I received unemployment benefits until August 2011. My bills, including rent and utilities are to be paid from the refund I will receive in October/November when my student loan refund is received. I have difficulty finding sufficient employment because there is lack of employment in the field I was employed in, thereby attending college for a career change.

As stated, I am a college student and receive a grant of $2,875 (combined) per semester plus student loans of $4,250. They are subject to deductions of college fees and expenses. (See attached). I anticipate my refund to be this semester less than $5,000.

I do have a car that is currently financed with payments of $315 per month. The outstanding balance on the car is currently over $7,000. There is no equity in the car that I can draw on.

My wife and my son are dependent on these funds I bring in, for expenses of basic shelter like housing, utilities, food, and clothing.

Currently, I have no funds I can rely on to furnish the fees associated with this action. I kindly request a waiver of the fees required, so I can pursue with action for redress.

Shall the Court determine that I do not qualify for this application; I request that the Court grant me leave to pursue this action with an extension of time to pay for the fees in November when I will have on the hand the available funds of my student loan refund.

Dated: September 18, 2011

Sincerely,

Yoel Weisshaus
